

NCPC Centennial Exhibit Events

NCPC's centennial exhibit Planning Washington: Capital and Community launched on June 6, 2024 at the Martin Luther King Jr. Memorial Library and was on display there until September 1, 2024. It was also on display at the West End Neighborhood Library and in the John F. Kennedy Center for the Performing Arts' Hall of Nations. The exhibit's final display is from October 30 – December 3 at Arena Stage, 1101 6th St, SW, Washington, DC.

NCPC is grateful to the DC Public Library for its partnership in developing and displaying the centennial exhibit, to the Kennedy Center and Arena Stage for enabling us to bring these stories to audiences in different locations, and to the Southwest Improvement District, Arena Stage, DC Public Library Foundation, and DC Design Tours for assistance with the Southwest Washington Architecture Tours.
